SALT LAKE

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

There is much building going on in all parts of the city and few men here are idle who choose to work.

The Presbyterian will in all probability be able to take possession of their new church building on South Temple street next year. The construction work is necessarily slow on account of the large stones that are being used in the walls, but the workmen are making a good showing nevertheless.

Work is progressing nicely on the mansion house on the east bench, but it is unlikely that the building will be completed this year.

The new home being erected in Pop-perton by Judge O. W. Patten is nearly completed. It is of cream colored brick and presents a fine appearance.

Two of the show windows of the Freed Furniture & Carpet company's house on Third South street have been arranged and furnished as a kitchen and a dining room. The furnishings in the dining room are rich and suggestive of ease and comfort. Another show window is being made in the center of the building.

The Holy Cross Hospital association has mortgaged the property on which the hospital is built for $45,000. The mortgage is payable in five years and bears interest at the rate of 5% per cent per annum. The property has evidently appreciated during the last few years, as a release of mortgage for $30,000 was filed at the same time.

Comfort can be enjoyed only by those whose money affairs cause no worry.
To be "comfortably rich" is an ideal condition, enjoyed by few and yet within the reach of all. A steady income from money invested in safe securities is a source of comfort and pleasure. When that income is sufficient to live on the possessor is as rich as any can possibly be. There is no need then to work or worry, and there is time for the higher aims and pleasures of life. Happily, too, such investments are in the long run more profitable than speculation, netting 6 per cent per annum, are the safest and best paying investments in the world. The investor holds the security and we do the work.

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Keith O'Brien's show windows are among the most tastefully arranged displays to be seen on Main street.
Conspicuously placed in one of the windows is a miniature yacht representing the Reliance under full sail, with the officers standing on the deck. In another window an elegant assortment of Turkish and Smyrna rugs is shown, while a third contains some new elden-down garments.

The furniture which was purchased some time ago by John Trenchard of the Trenchard-Harrington furniture firm has begun to arrive. A number of fine roll top desks and some exquisite brass bedsteads are among the goods which were recently received.

The Emery-Holmes building on the northeast corner of State and South Temple is now on the third and last story. The building is indeed a beautiful one and is admired by everyone.

A. Fred Wey, proprietor of the Wilson hotel, who is ill of typhoid at the Holy Cross hospital, is gaining strength and will be out in a short time.

John H. Norton company, the California railroad construction firm, is rushing outfits to Daguerre and to the junction of the Manvel branch of the Santa Fe with the proposed main line of the San Pedro and Los Angeles & Salt Lake, with the result that work will be commenced on active grading next week.

Utah musicians studying in Europe are meeting with great success. Fergus Catter received a letter from C.
D. Schetter, who is studying the cello in Berlin, in which the writer states that Miss Clark, Miss Read, Miss Anderson, Walter Wille and Herman Schetter, all of this city, are progressing wonderfully well with their studies.

Edwin Winslow Walker, the 4-year-old son of E. A. Walker of Riverton, who was operated for hip dislocation by Dr. Lorenz during his visit here last fall, has completely recovered the use of his lower limbs and now runs and romps with his fellow playmates with remarkable agility.

Colonel and Mrs. Holmes, when last heard from, were in the Land of the Midnight Sun, northern Norway.

The local colored people are making extended preparations for the proper celebration of Emancipation day, which comes Sept. 22.

Rumors are again in circulation relative to a large hotel to be erected in the future at the Continental corner, and a theatre is now mentioned among the probabilities in connection with the proposed improvement.

The war department has determined to expend $1,100,000 in the improvement of Fort Douglas. It is now proposed to make that fort one of the most beautiful in the entire country.

Chief James Devine of the fire department left Thursday morning for Atlantic City, N. J., to attend the annual convention of the National Fire Chiefs' association, which meets there Sept. 8 to Sept. 11, inclusive.

CATHEDRAL NOTES.
High mass will be resumed about Sept. 15.

Sister M. Alexes and Sister M. Geraldine, two well loved former teachers of St. Mary's academy, are once more located in Salt Lake, the former as superior of St. Mary's and the latter at St. Ann's orphanage. Glad news indeed for all the "old girls" of St.
Mary's, who, while appreciating the kindness of their new situation, long for the dear ones of the "other days."

Friday was communion day for the members of the Sacred Heart league.

chael Wynn was baptized Sunday after-

THE CLARK LOVING CUP FOR BEST DISPLAY OF FRUITS.

Indications point to a spirited rivalry on the part of Utah fruit growers for the magnificent $500 prize loving cup offered by Senator W. A. Clark, president of the irrigation congress, for the best display of fruits raised on irrigated lands. The cup is a handsome one and cost $500. The material is silver and the weight 20 ounces. The height is twenty-three inches. The design represents the goddess Pomona in the act of generously distributing the fruits of the earth. There are several other $500 prize loving cups which will be earnestly contended for. The offering of them has already wonderfully stimulated interest in the congress, which meets in eleventh annual session at Ogden from Sept. 15 to 18, inclusive.

DEDICATION OF NEW ALL HALLOWS

Fine Addition All Ready for the Opening—Dedicatory Services Next Sunday Conducted by Bishop Scanlan.

To the architectural beauty of the city is added another building which must bear mute but eloquent testimony to the educational progress of the intermountain west and stand as a monument to the intelligence and artistic taste of Salt Lake City. This is the addition of All Hallows college, which will be dedicated on Sunday with imposing ceremonies. The fact that the building is enclosed and ready for the furnishings is a surprise to most citizens, as it seems but a few weeks ago that the walls, roof and base, excited the curiosity of the passer-by.
The building is now enclosed and ready for the decorator, and some of the rooms are already occupied.

Pretty Little Chapel.
The crowning feature of the work is the chapel. It occupies the space between the old and the new buildings, and when completed will be a gem. Under its arching ceiling will be erected one of the most attractive altars of the west. This will be built entirely of marble and onyx on the Romanesque style, and during special services it will be brilliantly lighted with tapers and electric lights. The organ will be stationed in the gallery at the east end of the chapel.

Plan of the Halls.
The chapel is lighted by temporary ground glass windows of fancy design.
But stained glass windows will be substituted for the temporary ones. The old and the new buildings can be reached through the chapel, which opens into the halls of both buildings.
There is also a long veranda in the rear of the chapel, which connects the two buildings, and a hall on the third floor.
When the newness has worn off, the buildings will look like separate wings of the same structure. They are separated in the rear by a great archway, which furnishes plenty of light, air and ventilation for all the rooms on every floor.

For Guests and Others.
Upon each side of the spacious hall, when entering the new buildings, are two reception rooms with high ceilings.
On the right side of the hall, immediately south of the reception room, is a suite of guest chambers. These include a sitting room, sleeping room and bath, with all the very latest conveniences. There are also study other rooms for guests, faculty and students.

ernon by Father Galligan. He was named Francis Raymond. Mr. John O'Hara and Miss Minnie Cunningham were the sponsors.

Mr. Peter Martin attended court at Coalville Tuesday.

Mr. Patrick Downing spent a few days in the metropolis last week, returning home Thursday.

Mr. Michael Greenan visited Salt Lake last week.

Mr. Charles Keith came out from the city Thursday.

A baby boy was born Tuesday to Mr.
and Mrs. Richard Sykes.

Mr. John McSorley arrived from Salt Lake Tuesday morning.

Mr. Henry Walsh returned home Tuesday from his eastern trip.

Mr. Patrick McQueney has been confined to bed for the past two weeks with typhoid fever. He is under the care of Dr. Donohoe and is progressing favorably.

Mrs. John Canty visited in Salt Lake last week.

Mr. Patrick Trainor spent a few days in Salt Lake the first of the week.

Foreman James Quinn of the Nall-driver made a business trip to Salt Lake Monday.

Resolutions of Condolence.
Death has again visited us, and this time it has called home to her final rest, Aug. 10, 1903, our sweet, gentle sister, Katherine A. Leahy. Although she was called from her loved ones so young, her beautiful Christian life will be long remembered by all who knew and loved her.

We, the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H., mourn a loving sister, a true friend and a worthy member. Be it Resolved, That we extend to the beloved mother, brothers and sister our deepest sympathy in their sad and double bereavement. Be it Resolved, That our charter be draped

MANY DELEGATES COMING TO OGDEN

Indications Point to a Record-Breaking Irrigation Congress.

INTEREST IS WIDESPREAD

SPLENDID FRUIT EXHIBIT IS ASSURED.

O GDEN, Sept. 2.—Today's mail at the irrigation congress headquarters brought over 100 applications from prospective delegates for accommodations during the session. For the past two weeks mail has been going out from the headquarters by the business mail. Now the letters are coming the other way. Something of the volume of correspondence had in the promotion of the work may be gleaned from the fact that the postage bill of the board of control will amount to about $600.

A meeting was held last night by the board of control and a report of the finance committee was taken up. The committee, after making some careful estimates, reported that about $2,500 additional funds will be needed in order to carry on the work of the congress.
Senator Kiesel stated that that amount will be raised in order to work out the business of the congress along the broad lines desired by United States Senator Clark, the president.

The Water club held a meeting and appointed committees and subdivided the work in order to co-operate at the fullest extent in the entertainment of the delegates and the advertisement of Ogden and Utah.

On Tuesday John Henry Smith was present by invitation, and made several suggestions as to the arrangement of the programme, which the board have adopted and were working out yesterday.

Interest in Fruit Exhibit.

The interest in the fruit exhibit has passed all bounds set by those even the auspices of the state itself and strong rivalry exists already. The picture of the prize cup offered by Senator Clark has been extensively copied in other papers and the contest has received much free advertising all over the arid region.

Mr. Kiesel received word today that Mrs. Elizabeth Shields, a prominent California woman, and one of the best posters in matters of horticulture and Vilaculture, has been asked anywhere, will be in attendance at the congress. She has been asked to act as one of the judges of the contest.

Governor Peabody of Colorado writes that he has turned the matter of the fruit exhibit over to the state board of commissioners from the Golden state for the St. Louis exposition, has sent word that he will be a delegate and will deliver an address on "Colonizing and Building Up the West."

Mr. Kiesel has received a letter from A. B. Moss at Fayette, Ida., from which the following quotations are made:

Judge Richards Will Speak.

Your wire of this morning received. I have taken up the matter by phone with Judge J. H. Richards at Boise, telling him of your wire, and have through him officially invited him to deliver a ten-minute address at the National Irrigation congress, subject, "The Growing Under-irrigation," and he has promised to be there and deliver the address, and will go from Boise with us on the evening of the 14th, so will be in Ogden on the morning of the 15th.

This morning I have had a talk with your Mr. J. H. Forrester, who is afraid there may not be space to give us to make the display we wish to make of our fruits. Do not cut us short on this item.
We expect to display 30 varieties of fruit.
It will take about 100 feet of space in the exhibition room of 135x50 feet, and then the exhibit will have to be built eight feet in height.

Will you arrange for (have it done) with the Short Line railway to get out an express car to deliver our fruit on Friday night, Sept. 11? We will load it on the 12th and 14th, and start the car on the evening of the 14th, so it will be in Ogden the morning of the 15th. Then we can put the exhibit in place on that day and have it ready for the opening of the congress on the 15th.

We will bring down an exhibit that will surprise any individual (who is not a resident of the best of Idaho or eastern Oregon) that sees it, and while we do not ask an inch of space not needed, we will utilize all the space asked for.

Last week in Morgan occurred the wedding of Miss May Miller of Portland, Ore., to George P. Roman, well known in Ogden, but now located at Croyden as quarry superintendent for J. P. O'Neil.

The Sacred Heart academy is to reopen for its school work Sept. 8.

Miss Grace McGonagle has gone to Nevada to resume her work as teacher.

All the canning factories of the county have started on their season's run.
The tomato crop is unusually heavy this year, and, barring early frost, the output will be very large.

Autumn Tailored Suits

WITH DISTINCTIVE STYLE FEATURES, ON

TUESDAY MORNING

We shall present the concrete style opinions of America's foremost manufacturers and foreign designers, expressed in the tangible form of women's ready-to-wear suits. It is quite a pretentious exhibition, despite the early date, and there are no duplicates anywhere of any of these special garments.

For the coming season we've added style touches here, raised standard of making there, chosen fabrics more happily in another, so that in every point we're better satisfied with them than any other year's showing of the kind.

Extraordinary pricing of new autumn modes.
